As a trained gemmologist, precious stones are of primary importance to Carri. She expressly aims not to over-embellish her designs and favours a heavy gold look for added drama and extra effect. Her exclusive one-of-a-kind creations are handmade by artisan goldsmiths.

“My jewellery is for the modern, sophisticated woman, she is a connoisseur, with an understanding of jewellery, recognizes quality and desires distinction. Above all, she is a woman who loves to express her femininity and originality.”
